We served as intermediaries between our headquarters in Quebec and various New York and U.S. governmental organizations, private concerns and agencies as well as international organizations, thus providing information to our officials in a more expedient manner.

During the last week in October, we represented our Government at the annual convention of the New York State Association of Teachers of Foreign Languages held at Kiamesha Lake, N.Y. An official from our Department of Education was also on hand to introduce didactic material used in the teaching of French as a second language in Quebec.

We received approximately 150 requests for information every month. The inquiries cover the following subjects:

- Culture and education in general, especially historical background of the province, language, literature, the arts, etc.
- Immigration and employment
- Taxation
- Investment in land and other real estate
- Directories of Quebec manufacturers, lists of bankers, brokers, lawyers, etc.
- Health and social security programs
- Legislation: civil, municipal, highway codes, etc.
- Boarding schools, private schools, summer camps
- Statistics
- Government literature, photos and posters

Twenty-nine new books (Quebec and U.S.A.) were added to our library which is consulted by business people, researchers, teachers, librarians, journalists and students. On a few occasions, books were loaned to American and Quebec students.

Twenty-seven numbers of reviews of the American press were prepared by this Service for the ready reference of our headquarters in Quebec and the staff of this office.

3) Department of Industry and Commerce

- Industrial Development

The last quarter of 1974 has been marked with several changes in personnel and method of operation.

Pierre R. Lajoie was locally recruited as an Economic Counsellor and started with us on October 15th. Mr. Lajoie is a law graduate of McGill University, a member of the Quebec Bar and a graduate M.B.A. from Boston University. Following an indoctrination period here, in Montreal and Quebec, he will be largely occupied on the road throughout the territory prospecting, following leads and maintaining regular p.r. calls on firms with Quebec operations.

The Office has also assisted a great number of American journalists in obtaining pertinent data on Montreal, Quebec City and the Province as such.

Moreover, the Office has made numerous arrangements for journalists or travel agents to be guests of the Province of Quebec in order to familiarize themselves with our attractions and facilities.

During the same period the Tourism Counsellor attended several receptions as a guest speaker. He has also visited many travel agencies; land carriers and other organizations related to the travel industry.

Many mass transporters or tour operators were motivated on selling Quebec as a destination.

The main objective was to promote tourism via specific vehicles such as articles in a great number of newspapers, trade publications and the information media in general.

2) Department of Intergovernmental Affairs

On September 9th, the director of the Boston office was invited to participate in a TV program produced by WSBE, Channel 36, Providence, Rhode Island, entitled "Our Commissioner Abroad". The Commissioner of Education for the State of Rhode Island has been invited to tour the Province of Quebec. This tour was filmed by WSBE-TV, which is part of the P.B.S. chain.

On September 11, 22, and 13, we received the members of the Quebec Urban Commission headed by Mr. Castonguay and introduced this group to a number of people that are considered knowledgeable in urban planning and renewal in Boston.

On September 27, 28, 29, the director attended a seminar in Manchester, New Hampshire, organized by Franco-Americans of New England and was invited to say a few words on this particular occasion.

On December 4, a Christmas tree was given by the Province of Quebec to the city of Boston. For this particular occasion, our Deputy-Minister was invited.

Department of Industry and Commerce

We have devoted a fair amount of time on the Fantus program and have called on industrial prospects. We have accumulated approximately 19 dossiers which were considered at one time or another serious. Two of these companies have already established branch plants in Quebec, one in Farnham and another one in St-Léonard.

Some of the other companies, we feel, will establish manufacturing facilities in Quebec in the early part of 1975.

- Commercial Market Development:

We are working with a number of individual companies from Quebec that are interested in outlets in New England. Furthermore, we have participated in the Newport International Sails Show where six of our manufacturers were present. During the period covered by this report we also participated in the New England Builders and Construction Show held at Commonwealth Pier, Boston. Eight Quebec manufacturers exhibited. We also had an incoming mission from Gaspé, Québec, representing the fish industry of that area who came to New England to examine the possibilities of selling.

4) Department of Tourism, Fish and Game

In New England, most of the activities of the Tourist Counsellor during the past six months have centered around helping wholesale tour operators package some new tours to the province of Quebec during the off-season periods. He has also worked with some travel writers who are interested in writing about the tourist aspects of the Province. In the office, approximately 900 requests for information (both over the telephone and written) have been processed by sending them our publicity literature.

In Atlanta, the concentration is with the travel agents who specialize in group (mostly incentive) travel for large corporations seeking new destinations for their trips.

In Florida, he has been working with the airline representatives (Eastern, Delta, and Air Canada) to package tours, facilitate travel and fill their seats for the return of the planes that fly into Miami loaded with vacationers.

All of the above is done by personal contacts and promotions or receptions.

CHICAGO

1) Quebec Government

The Quebec Government Office in Chicago organized an industrial seminar to present Quebec to the business and financial community of Cleveland, Ohio. Hon. Robert De Coster, Minister of Industry and Commerce, presided over the seminar and spoke on Quebec's economic outlook; representatives of the federal government and the Bay James Development Society also gave brief presentations.

The office helped procure a film on Quebec which was screened for 75 members of a French-American club of Chicago. The staff also responded to a wide range of inquiries from Midwesterners (covering such subjects as legislation, immigration, taxes, housing, lotteries, and use of the French language in business), and in general acted as liaison between the public and various government departments and agencies.

2) Department of Intergovernmental Affairs

The office had numerous discussions with representatives of the Department of Cultural Affairs exploring ways to promote Quebec's cultural resources in the Midwest.

Two Midwest companies with which the Economic Counsellor has been working are setting up or expanding manufacturing operations in Quebec, and a third is opening a warehouse and distribution center. All the personnel of the office continued to devote considerable time to the Fantus project, sending some 500 letters to prospects and distributing 40 studies as well as coordinating the follow-up effort by Quebec industrial commissioners. The office worked closely with 6 companies which are seriously considering manufacturing investments in Quebec, and maintained contact with 300 long-range prospects. In addition to organizing the industrial seminar described in the section above, the Economic Counsellor attended the American Mining Congress and helped promote Quebec's participation in this Show through a preliminary mailing to 100 Midwest companies and follow-up presentations to 12 companies contacted during the Show.

The Commercial Counsellor of the Chicago office, in cooperation with the Montreal office, organized a major in-store promotion with Evanc Inc. which involved 8 stores and $1 million worth of clothing, furs and accessories made in Quebec. The office also participated in two other store promotions involving a total of 27 stores and $200,000 worth of Quebec clothing. The Commercial Counsellor helped coordinate a technical mission which brought 8 Quebec companies to Chicago for the Inbex Show, and spent a week in Quebec on a mission to discover and develop the exporting and/or contract manufacturing potential of Quebec companies. The office also provided assistance to 8 Quebec companies interested in penetrating the Midwest market, and worked actively with 2 Quebec companies seeking association with American companies and 8 Midwestern companies looking for Canadian Licensees or partners.

4) Department of Tourism, Fish and Game

The Tourist Counsellor made a presentation and showed a film on Quebec to the Eastern Round Table Association Convention (this group will hold their 1975 Convention in Quebec City). He also participated in presentations on Quebec ski regions in Chicago, Milwaukee, Detroit and Cleveland. The office helped organize familiarization tours of Quebec for 100 members of the Chicago Society of Association Executives and for a group of journalists from Detroit; we also arranged trips to Quebec for representatives of three organizations which are contemplating holding future conventions in Quebec. The Tourist Counsellor attended the ASTA Convention in Montreal and sent follow-up letters to Midwestern travel agents who attended this meeting, several of whom indicated interest in sending their clients to Quebec. In addition to establishing personal contact with 65 Chicago area travel agents, the Tourist Counsellor introduced himself, and the services of the office, by letter, to eight media representatives (newspaper and television). Previous contacts with journalists resulted in a number of excellent articles on Quebec which appeared in various Midwestern newspapers with mass circulation. The office handled over 400 requests for travel information from persons interested in visiting the province.

New Orleans, La., given at the occasion of the visit to Louisiana of the Hon. Gérard D. Levesque, Vice-Premier and Minister of Intergovernmental Affairs of the Government of Quebec. The State of Louisiana is part of the territory covered by the Quebec Government Office in Dallas.

3) Department of Industry and Commerce

- Industrial Development:

Soliciting industries to set-up manufacturing operations and presenting them with the advantages and opportunities in expanding towards Quebec, remain our principal activity and main objective.

We have been in touch with sixty nine firms with whom we have developed previous contacts and have opened thirty five new files during the last semester of 1974.

Despite the slower pace of the present economy demonstrated by a certain reserve and caution at immediate investments and expansion, the optimistic outlook towards future possibilities remains steady enough to maintain strong interest among the majority of our contacts. Consequently we have noted that at the present time joint ventures seem more appealing to industries than single operations.

- Trade Promotion:

Under the auspices of the Quebec Department of Industry and Commerce, several manufacturers from our Province have participated in three major shows held in the territory assigned to the Dallas Office, namely: The American Apparel Manufacturers Association, Bobbin Show, held at the Dallas Convention Center last September, where four of our manufacturers showed their products, The Southern Furniture Show at Hickory, N.C. in October, where six manufacturers from Quebec were present. During December, three Quebec manufacturers participated at the American Vocational Association Convention and Exhibition, held in New Orleans, La.

Due to our insufficient staff in the Dallas office, our trade promotion is still being accomplished mainly in cooperation with the Canadian Consulates located in our territory, i.e. Dallas and Atlanta.

4) Department of Tourism, Fish and Game

The present economic situation does not seem to curtail the desire of the people to travel. During the last semester, we have provided at their request, various companies, travel agencies, groups and individuals with a substantial amount of literature, tourist brochures as well as information on the cities in Quebec chosen for their projected tours, annual meetings or conventions. These diversified requests keep on increasing constantly.

Particularly during last December, many inquiries, mainly from travel agencies, have reached our office, concerning the forthcoming Olympic Games to be held in Montreal during July and August 1976.
